THE TENNESSEE INNOVATION IN EVIDENCE-BASED PROGRAMMING CONFERENCE

The Tennessee Innovations in Evidence Based Programming Conference is to provide criminal justice practitioners (law enforcement, community corrections, mental health, children's services and juvenile justice professionals) from across the state with an opportunity to learn about:

- Implementation of Evidence-Based Programs (EBPs);
- Effective Gang Prevention/Intervention Strategies;
- Risk and Needs Assessments: Serving the right offenders for effective outcomes;
- Drug Market Intervention, Smart Policing and CIT; and
- Preventative Juvenile Services, Youth Courts and Relapse Prevention.

The Tennessee Office of Criminal Justice Programs will be seeking to fund programs that use evidence based practices with its future open grant solicitations.
